EXCLUSION POLICY

Date adopted September 2020

Reviewed: July 2023

Next Review: July 2024

Staff Responsible: Jonathan Elms

Link Governor: Chair of Governors

1. Introduction

In our vision for the school and Pre-School we develop a:

Love of learning for life.

I came to give life — life in all its fullness. John 10:10

Stonegate Church of England Primary School is a community founded on Christian Values: Courage, Friendship, Respect and Trust embracing every child and their family. We provide a safe environment, where a lifetime love of learning begins, the whole child is nurtured and each child is valued and able to thrive.

In partnership with parents, we will instil this vision in the children of our school.

2. Policy aims

We believe that children can achieve their full educational potential if they attend school regularly and behave well. However, we recognise that, some just need support to do so.

Ours School aims to ensure that:

- a) The exclusions process is applied fairly and consistently
- b) The exclusions process is understood by all: governors, staff, parents and pupils
- c) Pupils in school are safe and happy
- d) Pupils do not become 'Missing in Education'.

3. Legislation and statutory guidance

This policy is based on statutory guidance from the Department for Education: Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units (PRUs) in England.

It is based on the following legislation, which outline schools' powers to exclude pupils:

- a) Section 52 of the Education Act 2002, as amended by the Education Act 2011
- b) The School Discipline (Pupil Exclusions and Reviews) (England) Regulations 2012
- c) Sections 64-68 of the School Standards and Framework Act 1998
- d) In addition, the policy is based on:
- e) Part 7, chapter 2 of the Education and Inspections Act 2006, which looks at parental responsibility for excluded pupils
- f) Section 579 of the Education Act 1996, which defines 'school day'
- g) The Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) (England) Regulations 2007, as amended by The Education (Provision of Full-Time Education for Excluded Pupils) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2014

4. The decision to exclude

Only the headteacher can exclude a pupil from school. A permanent exclusion will be taken as a last resort.

We recognise that off-rolling is unlawful. Ofsted defines off-rolling as:

"...the practice of removing a pupil from the school roll without a formal, permanent exclusion or by encouraging a parent to remove their child from the school roll, when the removal is primarily in the interests of the school rather than in the best interests of the pupil."

We are committed to following all statutory exclusions procedures to ensure that every child receives an education in a safe and caring environment.

A decision to exclude a pupil will be taken only:

- a) In response to serious or persistent breaches of the school's behaviour policy, and
- b) If allowing the pupil to remain in school would seriously harm the education or welfare of others

Before deciding whether to exclude a pupil, either permanently or for a fixed period, the headteacher will:

- a) Consider all the relevant facts and evidence, including whether the incident(s) leading to the exclusion were provoked
- b) Allow the pupil to give their version of events
- c) Consider if the pupil has special educational needs (SEN). If the behaviour leading to the exclusion arose from an underlying special educational need or disability, or mental health need, the exclusion could be unlawful under the Equalities Act (2010). This applies to needs that have been identified or not.
- d) Headteachers should, as far as possible, avoid excluding a Looked After Child (LAC) or any pupil with an Education, Health and Care Plan (EHCP).

To support the decision making, both in substance and process, the headteacher uses a check list based on the Department for Education document (see appendix 2).

5. Definition

For the purposes of exclusions, a school day is defined as any day on which there is a school session.

Therefore, INSET or staff training days do not count as a school day.

6. Roles and responsibilities

6.1 The headteacher

Informing parents

The headteacher will immediately provide the following information, in writing, to the parents of an excluded pupil:

- a) The reason(s) for the exclusion
- b) The length of a fixed-term exclusion or, for a permanent exclusion, the fact that it is permanent
- c) Information about parents' right to make representations about the exclusion to the local governing body and how the pupil may be involved in this
- d) Where there is a legal requirement for the local governing body to meet to consider the reinstatement of a pupil, and that parents have a right to attend a meeting, be represented at a meeting (at their own expense) and to bring a friend

The headteacher will also notify parents by the end of the afternoon session on the day their child is excluded that for the first 5 school days of an exclusion, or until the start date of any alternative provision where this is earlier, parents are legally required to ensure that their child is not present in a public place during school hours without a good reason. Parents may be given a fixed penalty notice or prosecuted if they fail to do this.

If alternative provision is being arranged, the following information will be included when notifying parents of an exclusion:

- a) The start date for any provision of full-time education that has been arranged

- b) The start and finish times of any such provision, including the times for morning and afternoon sessions, where relevant
- c) The address at which the provision will take place
- d) Any information required by the pupil to identify the person they should report to on the first day

Where this information on alternative provision is not reasonably ascertainable by the end of the afternoon session, it may be provided in a subsequent notice, but it will be provided no later than 48 hours before the provision is due to start. The only exception to this is where alternative provision is to be provided before the sixth day of an exclusion, in which case the information can be provided with less than 48 hours' notice with parents' consent.

Informing the Governing Body (GB) and Local Authority (LA)

The headteacher will immediately notify the GB of any fixed term or permanent exclusions. A copy of the letter should be emailed to the Chair and Clerk of the GB.

The LA will be advised, via EXN01 form- ESCC, Exclusion form 1 (a copy can be found in appendix 7 along with the LA contact details), of the following:

- a) A permanent exclusion, including when a fixed-period exclusion is made permanent
- b) Exclusions which would result in the pupil being excluded for more than 5 school days (or more than 10 lunchtimes) in a term
- c) Exclusions which would result in the pupil missing a public examination

For a permanent exclusion, if the pupil lives outside the LA in which the school is located, the headteacher will also immediately inform the pupil's 'home authority' of the exclusion and the reason(s) for it without delay.

For all other exclusions, the headteacher will notify the LA once a term.

6.2 The governing body

Responsibilities regarding exclusions is that of the GB. The GB has a duty to consider the reinstatement of an excluded pupil (see section 7).

6.3 The Local Authority

For permanent exclusions, the LA is responsible for arranging suitable full-time education to begin no later than the sixth day of the exclusion.

7. Considering the reinstatement of a pupil

A GB exclusion panel will be convened from 3 GB governors who have no previous knowledge of the case.

A GB exclusion panel will consider the reinstatement of an excluded pupil within 15 school days of receiving the notice of the exclusion if:

- a) The exclusion is permanent
- b) It is a fixed-term exclusion which would bring the pupil's total number of school days of exclusion to more than 15 in a term
- c) It would result in a pupil missing a public examination

If requested to do so by parents, a GB exclusion panel will consider the reinstatement of an excluded pupil within 50 school days of receiving notice of the exclusion if the pupil would be excluded from school for more than 5 school days, but less than 15, in a single term.

Where an exclusion would result in a pupil missing a public examination, a GB exclusion panel will consider the reinstatement of the pupil before the date of the examination. If this is not practicable, the Chair of the GB will consider the exclusion and decide whether or not to reinstate the pupil.

A GB exclusion panel can either:

- a) Decline to reinstate the pupil, or
- b) Direct the reinstatement of the pupil immediately, or on a particular date

In reaching a decision, the GB exclusion panel will consider whether the exclusion was lawful, reasonable and procedurally fair and whether the headteacher followed their legal duties. They will decide whether or not a fact is true 'on the balance of probabilities', which differs from the criminal standard of 'beyond reasonable doubt', as well as any evidence that was presented in relation to the decision to exclude.

Notes will be taken of the meeting, and a record of evidence considered kept. The outcome will also be recorded on the pupil's educational record.

The GB exclusion panel will notify, in writing, the headteacher, parents and the LA of its decision, along with reasons for its decision, without delay.

Where an exclusion is permanent, the GB exclusion panel decision will also include the following:

- a) The fact that it is permanent
- b) Notice of parents' right to ask for the decision to be reviewed by an independent review panel, and:
  - i. The date by which an application for an independent review must be made
  - ii. The name and address to whom an application for a review should be submitted
  - iii. That any application should set out the grounds on which it is being made and that, where appropriate, reference to how the pupil's SEN are considered to be relevant to the exclusion
  - iv. That, regardless of whether the excluded pupil has recognised SEN, parents have a right to require the school / LA to appoint an SEN expert to attend the review

- v. Details of the role of the SEN expert and that there would be no cost to parents for this appointment
  - vi. That parents must make clear if they wish for an SEN expert to be appointed in any application for a review
  - vii. That parents may, at their own expense, appoint someone to make written and/or oral representations to the panel, and parents may also bring a friend to the review
- b) That if parents believe that the exclusion has occurred as a result of discrimination, they may make a claim under the Equality Act 2010 to the first-tier tribunal (special educational needs and disability), in the case of disability discrimination, or the county court, in the case of other forms of discrimination. A claim of discrimination made under these routes should be lodged within 6 months of the date on which the discrimination is alleged to have taken place.

8. An independent review

If parents apply for an independent review, the GB supported by the LA will arrange for an independent panel to review the decision of the GB exclusion panel not to reinstate a permanently excluded pupil.

Applications for an independent review must be made within 15 school days of notice being given to the parents by LGB exclusion panel of its decision to not reinstate a pupil.

A panel of 3 members will be constituted with representatives from each of the categories below:

- a) A lay member to chair the panel who has not worked in any school in a paid capacity, disregarding any experience as a school governor or volunteer
- b) School governors who have served as a governor for at least 12 consecutive months in the last 5 years, provided they have not been teachers or headteachers during this time

c) Headteachers or individuals who have been a headteacher within the last 5 years

A person may not serve as a member of a review panel if they:

a) Are member of the GB of the excluding school

b) Are the headteacher of the excluding school, or have held this position in the last 5 years

c) Are an employee of the excluding school

d) Have, or at any time have had, any connection with the school, GB, parents or pupil, or the incident leading to the exclusion, which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their impartially

e) Have not had the required training within the last 2 years (see appendix 6 for what training must cover)

A suitably trained clerk will be appointed to the panel.

SEN Expert

Parents have a right to request the attendance of an SEN expert at a review, regardless of whether the school recognises that their child has SEN. The SEN expert must be someone who has expertise and experience of special educational needs considered by the academy trust as appropriate to perform the functions specified in the legislation.

A person may not serve as an SEN expert if they have, or at any time have had, any connection with the academy trust, school, parents or pupil, or the incident leading to the exclusion, which might reasonably be taken to raise doubts about their ability to act impartially.

Where present, the panel must seek and have regard to the SEN expert's view of how SEN might be relevant to the pupil's exclusion, for example, whether the school acted reasonably in relation to its legal duties when excluding the pupil. The focus of the SEN expert's advice should be on whether the school's policies which relate to SEN, or the application of these policies, were reasonable and procedurally fair (in line with the principles of legality, rationality and procedural propriety). If the SEN expert believes that this was not the case he/she should, where possible, advise the panel on the possible contribution which could have been made to the pupil's exclusion.

Where a SEN expert has been requested but is not present, the panel should make parents aware of their right to request that the review is adjourned until such time as an SEN expert can attend.

Remit of the Independent Review Panel

The independent panel will decide one of the following:

- a) Uphold the governing board's decision
- b) Recommend that the GB reconsiders reinstatement
- c) Quash the governing board's decision and direct that they reconsider reinstatement (only when the decision is judged to be flawed)

The panel's decision can be decided by a majority vote. In the case of a tied decision, the chair has the casting vote.

9. School registers

A pupil's name will be removed from the school admissions register if:

- a) 15 school days have passed since the parents were notified of the exclusion panel's decision to not reinstate the pupil and no application has been made for an independent review panel, or
- b) The parents have stated in writing that they will not be applying for an independent review panel

Where an application for an independent review has been made, the LGB will wait until that review has concluded before removing a pupil's name from the register. Where alternative provision has been made for an excluded pupil and they attend it, code B (education off-site) or code D (dual registration) will be used on the attendance register. Where excluded pupils are not attending alternative provision, code E (absent) will be used.

10. Returning from a fixed-term exclusion

Following a fixed-term exclusion, a re-integration meeting will be held involving the pupil, parents, a member of senior staff and other staff, where appropriate.

The following measures may be implemented when a pupil returns from a fixed-term exclusion:

- a) Putting a child on a behaviour improvement plan
- b) Introduction of home school communication book
- c) Involvement of external agencies
- d) Agreement of additional support such as play or other therapies

11. Monitoring arrangements

The Headteacher, Mr Jonathan Elms, monitors the number of exclusions and reports to the GB. He also liaises with the local authority to ensure suitable full-time education for excluded pupils.

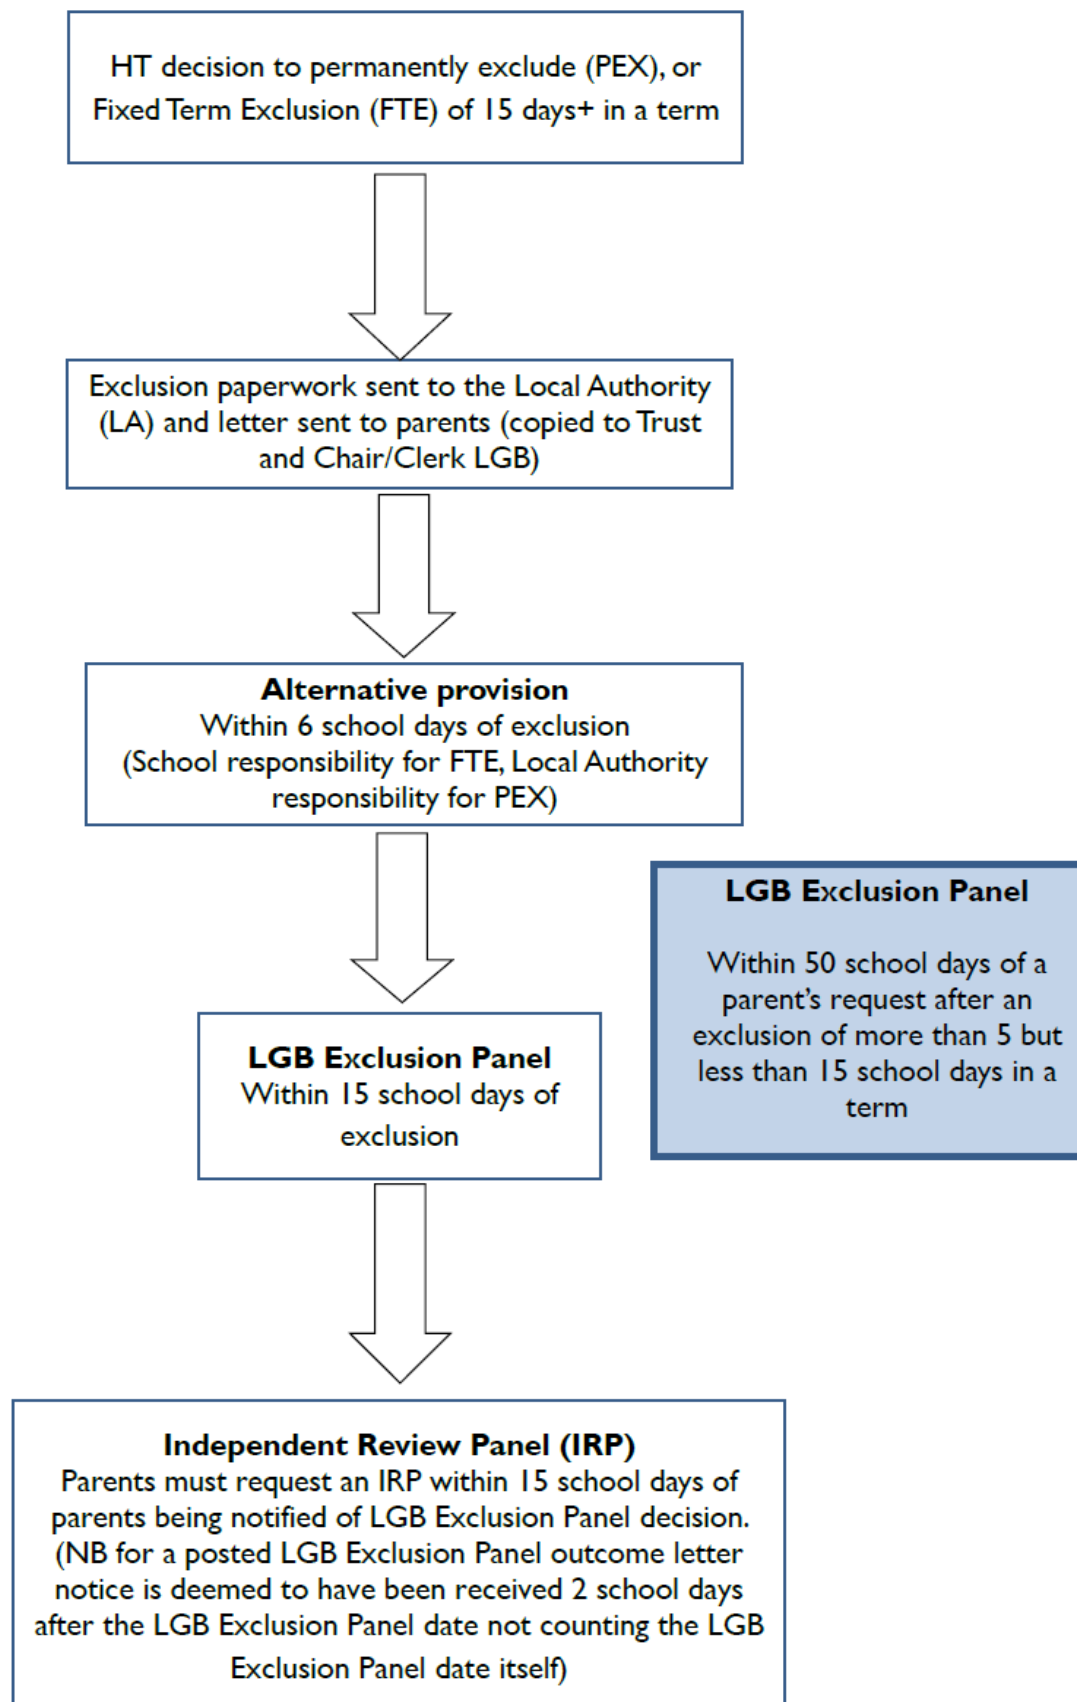

This policy will be reviewed by the school and governing body every year.

12. Links with other policies

This exclusions policy is linked to individual schools:

- a) Positive Behaviour Policy Behaviour for Learning Policy
- b) Anti-Bullying Policy
- c) SEND policies and information reports

Appendix 1: Permanent Exclusion Process – Overview

Appendix 2: Headteacher Exclusion Checklist

This checklist is based on the Department for Education document: "Exclusion from maintained schools, Academies and pupil referral units in England" It is used as a good practice guide and references the guidance where appropriate. It helps ensure fair, considered, evidence based decisions.

Consideration	Comment/Evidence
'Informal' or 'unofficial' exclusions, such as sending pupils home to 'cool off', are unlawful, regardless of whether they occur with the agreement of parents or carers. Any exclusion of a pupil, even for short periods of time, must be formally recorded (para.14).
The law does not allow for extending a fixed-period exclusion or 'converting' a fixed-period exclusion into a permanent exclusion. In exceptional cases, usually where further evidence has come to light, a further fixed-period exclusion may be issued to begin immediately after the first period ends; or a permanent exclusion may be issued to begin immediately after the end of the fixed period. (para 3)
Where practical, head teachers should give pupils an opportunity to present their case (para.17). Interview the pupil, in the presence of another adult, taking notes of questions asked and answers given, using the pupil's own words.
If the pupil is able to do so, ask for a written account of the incident - if the pupil is too upset to do this at the time, ask for this as soon as possible after the incident - if the pupil refuses to give a written account, note the refusal.
Get written statements from adults or any other pupils involved in, or witnesses to, the incident - ensure these are done as soon after the incident as possible and that they are attributed, signed and dated - anonymity should not be routine nor automatic. (para.118 refers to witness statements for an Independent Review Panel but it would also be good practice for Governors Disciplinary hearings).
Take in to account any contributing factors that might be identified. For example, where the pupil has suffered bereavement, has mental health issues or has been subject to bullying (para.18).
Consider whether the pupil's behaviour was a serious or persistent breach of the school's discipline policies and (this is a two-part test which must be met for every exclusion) whether allowing the pupil to remain in school would affect the education or welfare of the pupil or of others in the school (para.16);

Consider whether the pupil has a Statement of SEN (paras.11,23-25), is a looked- after child (paras.23-25), is from an ethnic minority group (paras.21-22), or has any other issues which may have affected his/her behaviour on this particular occasion;
Consider whether there is any discrimination under the Equality Act 2010 (paras.9-11);
Consider the support given to the pupil by the school to address any behavioural issues (para.19);
Consider whether all reasonable alternative strategies to exclusion have been tried;
If appropriate, consult with others (e.g. SENDAR, Specialist Teaching Service, Social Workers, Exclusions officers or any other relevant professionals) but not anyone, such as a member of the school's governing body, who may later take part in the statutory review of the decision.

Once the decision to exclude has been made the head teacher:

- a) must notify the parents, without delay and ideally by telephone, of the period of the exclusion and the reasons for it (para.26)
- b) must provide information in writing to the parents, without delay, confirming the exclusion and providing all necessary information (paras.27-39)
- c) must, for a permanent exclusion, tell the LA without delay (para.40), by completing the appropriate paperwork (including the requested supporting documentation)
- d) must, for fixed period and permanent exclusions, ensure the exclusion is logged correctly on SIMS, giving details of start date, end date and reason
- e) must inform the Governing Board of the exclusion so that any necessary meeting can be arranged within the statutory time limits (para.40 and para.55)
- f) should make arrangements for the pupil to receive homework during the exclusion period and set these out in the exclusion letter (para.50-51) - it is good practice for there to be a named contact given in the exclusion letter so that parents know who to talk to if there are any problems with these arrangements
- g) should, if an Exclusion Panel meeting is necessary, prepare paperwork for the Clerk to circulate to all parties (para.61)
- h) should consider arrangements for reintegrating the pupil at the end of the exclusion period, bearing in mind that conditions cannot be imposed on the return to school (para.13)

Appendix 3: Headteacher / Clerk checklist: GB Exclusion Panel paperwork pack

It is important that the GB Exclusion Panel provides all parties with a fair hearing and that the rules of natural justice are adhered to. The case should be clearly presented and evidence is produced.

The GB Exclusion Panel pack containing all written material from the school and parents MUST be distributed to the GB Exclusion Panel members (Governors, parents and any LA representation) 3-5 school days before the GB Exclusion Panel date to allow for preparation and the option to take legal advice if so desired. If the parents have been unable to meet this deadline and present evidence at the meeting, it is recommended that the information is admitted. The Panel could take a short recess to read the material before proceeding with the meeting.

What evidence should be presented by the school?

The evidence that should be provided is different if the permanent exclusion is for a 'one-off' serious incident compared to cumulative reasons. The tables below show the evidence required for each.

Appendix 3.1 Exclusions for a 'one-off' serious incident

Type of evidence	Yes or no	Should this be provided?
Details of the incident in question		Must be provided

Appendix 4: Suggested format for the LGB Exclusion Panel

The GB Exclusion Panel should ensure that a proper agenda for its meetings is prepared. The agenda can be flexible to meet the needs of attendees but it is important that the final three points occur in this order at the end of the agenda. It is suggested that the agenda is included within the pack sent to governors, parents and the LA and a copy given to the Headteacher.

The agenda should cover the following:

- The Chair welcomes and introduces all parties
- The headteacher puts the case for exclusion
- The parents, panel members and LA representative (when present) may question the head teacher
- The parents (and/or excluded young person where age-appropriate) make their case for reinstatement
- The headteacher, panel members and LA representative (when present) may question the parents
- The LA representative (when present) makes a statement.
- The parents, headteacher and panel may question the LA representative (when present)
- The headteacher makes his/her concluding remarks
- The parents (and/or excluded young person where age-appropriate) make their concluding remarks
- The Chair of the panel concludes this part of the meeting and advises the parents/child that they will receive the decision of the governors in writing within 24 hours.
- At the end of the GB Exclusion Panel, the panel members must ensure that all other parties have withdrawn before making a decision in private.
- The panel can either decide to reinstate the pupil, immediately or on a given date, or decline to reinstate the pupil

Where a GB Exclusion Panel has been held to consider a permanent exclusion, the school must advise the Local Authority within 24 hours of the decision taken by the GB Exclusion Panel whether to reinstate the pupil or not.

Following all GB Exclusion Panels, the school should inform the Local Authority of the decision, preferably with a copy of the letter that has been sent to parents. This letter should include the reasons for the decision, with enough detail to enable all parties to understand why the decision was made.

Appendix 5: GB Exclusion Panel Checklist

The panel may find it useful to use this checklist when considering the exclusion.

Considerations	or x	Comments
The quality of the evidence
Have the facts been established? Was a full investigation, involving appropriate witnesses, carried out? Is the excluded pupil's voice present?
How did the incident relate to the school's behaviour policy?
Was the pupil responsible for the behaviour that led to the exclusion? (Governors should consider matters on the 'balance of probability' and if there is serious doubt, a reinstatement should be directed).
Was the exclusion a proportionate response?
Was the exclusion a reasonable and proportionate response to the behaviour?
Was it fair in respect of sanctions imposed on any other pupils involved?
Were alternative strategies tried?
If the exclusion was a response to an ongoing pattern of deteriorating behaviour, was it used as a last resort after other strategies, including the involvement of outside agencies and support services had failed? (An Additional Needs Plan should be in place, clearly identifying and evaluating school strategies, internal and external support).
Were there mitigating circumstances?
Are there any factors arising from parental representation or other factors? (e.g. special/medical needs, domestic circumstances, genuine remorse, loss of external exam opportunity)
Are there unmet Special Educational Needs or Mental Health needs that have contributed to the behaviour? (If there is doubt this exclusion could be unlawful under the Equalities Act 2010).
Is there evidence that this has been considered by the Headteacher?
Could there be other needs that have not been identified? Could any other strategies/investigations be tried (e.g. strategies in school, involving outside agencies)?

Appendix 6: Independent review panel training

The GB supported by the LA must ensure that all members of an independent review panel and clerks have received training within the 2 years prior to the date of the review.

Training must have covered:

- a) The requirements of the primary legislation, regulations and statutory guidance governing exclusions, which would include an understanding of how the principles applicable in an application for judicial review relate to the panel's decision making
- b) The need for the panel to observe procedural fairness and the rules of natural justice
- c) The role of the chair and the clerk of a review panel
- d) The duties of headteachers, governing boards and the panel under the Equality Act 2010
- e) The effect of section 6 of the Human Rights Act 1998 (acts of public authorities unlawful if not compatible with certain human rights) and the need to act in a manner compatible with human rights protected by that Act

In addition, a clerk must be appointed who should not have served as clerk to the GB Exclusion meeting where the decision was made not to reinstate the pupil.

He/she should have the training required by law and an up-to-date understanding of developments in case law, legislation and guidance which are relevant to exclusion.

The GB should ensure that the clerk follows the advice in paragraphs 113-123 in 'Exclusion from maintained schools, academies and pupil referral units in England' (September 2017)

Appendix 8.1: Model Letter 1

Dear [parent's name]

I am writing to inform you of my decision to exclude [child's name] for a fixed period between the dates [specify period] inclusive. This means that [child's name] will not be allowed in school during this period. The exclusion begins/began on [date] and ends on [date]. [child's name] should return to school on [first school day following the end of the fixed period exclusion].

I realise that this exclusion may well be upsetting for you and your family, but the decision to exclude [child's name] has not been taken lightly. [Child's name] has been excluded for this fixed period because [specify full reason(s) for exclusion].

[The following two paragraphs apply only to pupils of compulsory school age]

You have a duty to ensure that [child's name] is not present in a public place in school hours during the period of this exclusion between [specify period] inclusive unless there is reasonable justification for this. I must advise you that you may receive a penalty notice from the Local Authority or be prosecuted if [child's name] is present in a public place during school hours without reasonable justification on the specified dates. If so, it will be for you to demonstrate reasonable justification.

We will set work for [child's name] to complete on the days specified in the previous paragraph, i.e. the school days during the period of the exclusion when you must ensure that he/she is not present in a public place without reasonable justification. [Detail the arrangements for this]. Please ensure that the work set is completed and returned promptly to us for marking.

You have the right to make representations about this exclusion to the Governing Board. If you wish to make representations please contact [name of contact] at [contact details – to include address, telephone number, e-mail], as soon as possible. Please note that for this length of exclusion the Governing Board do not have to meet with you, they also have no power to direct reinstatement. However, they must consider any representations you make and they may place a copy of their findings on [child's name]'s school record.

You should also be aware that if you think that discrimination has occurred under the Equalities Act 2010 in relation to this exclusion, you have the right to make a claim to the First-tier Tribunal (for disability discrimination) or a County Court (for other forms of discrimination). The address to which claims for disability discrimination should be sent is SENDIST, 1st Floor, Darlington Magistrates Court, Parkgate, Darlington, DL1 1RU (Tel: 01325 289350, Email address: sendist@hmcts.gsi.gov.uk.) Making a claim would not affect your right to make representations to the LGB Exclusion Panel

[The following paragraph applies to all fixed period exclusions of primary-aged pupils and may be used for fixed period exclusions of up to 5 days for secondary aged pupils if the head teacher/teacher in charge chooses to hold a reintegration interview].

You are requested to attend a reintegration interview with [child's name] at the school on [date] at [time]. If that is not convenient, please contact [enter name of person to be contacted] as soon as possible to arrange a suitable alternative date and time. The reintegration interview will be conducted by [enter "me" or the name and position of the person who will conduct the reintegration interview]. The purpose of the reintegration interview is to discuss how best your child's return to school can be managed. Please note that failure to attend a reintegration interview may be a factor taken into account by a magistrates' court if, on future application, they consider whether to impose a parenting order on you.

You also have the right to see a copy of [child's name]'s school record. Due to confidentiality restrictions, you will need to notify me in writing if you wish to be supplied with a copy of this. I will be happy to supply you with a copy if you request it. There may be a charge for photocopying.

Appendix 8.9: Model Letter 9

Dear [parent's name]

I am writing to confirm the decision reached by the Local Governing Body Exclusion Panel at their meeting on [date of Local Governing Body Exclusion Panel meeting] to consider reinstatement of [child's name] from [name of school] School.

After careful consideration of all the evidence available and the representations made to the Local Governing Body Exclusion Panel, the committee has decided to not reinstate [child's name] for the following reason(s) [inset reasons in as much detail as possible explaining how they were arrived at]

OR

direct reinstatement from [specify date] for the following reason(s)

[inset reasons in as much detail as possible explaining how they were arrived at]

[Where reinstatement has been directed insert the next paragraph, omit the subsequent paragraphs and go to "Yours sincerely,"]

The Head Teacher or a senior member of staff will contact you shortly to discuss the arrangements to be made for [child's name] to return to school

[Where the child has not been reinstated insert the following paragraphs]

You have the right to ask for this decision to be reviewed by an Independent Review Panel.

You should then set out the reasons for requesting a review in writing and send this to: no later than [specify the latest date by which a review may be requested, i.e. 15 school days from the date on which notice in writing of the Governing Body Exclusion Panel's decision not to reinstate was sent to the parents (notice is deemed to have been given on the same day if it is delivered directly, or the second working day after posting if it is sent by first class mail)]. If you feel that your child has special educational needs relevant to this exclusion you should refer to this in your written statement. If you have not requested that a review is held by [repeat latest date] you will lose your right to have the decision of the Governing Body Exclusion Panel reviewed.

An Independent Review Panel comprises of one serving, or recently retired (within the last 5 years) Head Teacher, one serving, or recently serving, experienced governor and one lay member who will be the Chairman. The review panel will rehear all the facts of the case. If any party has fresh evidence to present to the panel they may do so.

If you ask for the Governing Body Exclusion Panel's decision to be reviewed by the Independent Review Panel you have the right to require that an expert in Special Educational Needs (SEN) attends the review at no cost to you. You may require that an SEN expert attends the hearing irrespective of whether the school believes your child has special educational needs or not. The SEN expert's role is analogous to an expert witness, providing impartial advice to the panel on how special educational needs may have been relevant to the exclusion. Should you request a review of the Local Governing Body Exclusion Panel's decision and you wish an SEN expert to be appointed please let Jo Saunders know.

I should also inform you that if you request a review of the Governing Body Exclusion Panel's decision you may, at your own expense, appoint a representative, including a legal representative, to make written and/or oral representations to the Independent Review Panel and that you may also bring a friend or supporter to the review. If you intend to be accompanied please let know. Please also advise if you have a disability or any special needs which would affect your ability to attend the meeting and if it would be helpful for you to have an interpreter present.

Where a representative of the Local Authority attended the Governing Body Exclusion Panel meeting and made representation, he/she or another representative will also at your request attend the review and submit a statement in advance.

In determining the outcome of a review the panel can make one of three decisions: they may uphold the decision not to reinstate your child; they may recommend that the Governing Body Exclusion Panel reconsiders its decision not to reinstate your child; or they may quash the decision and direct that the Governing Body Exclusion Panel considers reinstatement again. A panel should only quash a decision where it considers that it was flawed when considered in the light of the principles applicable on an application for judicial review.

You may wish to contact Local Authority Behaviour & Attendance Service, who can provide advice. They can be contacted [enter relevant LA details].
